

Event: YouTube FanFest

Title: Educational Technology Tutorials for Students

The channel focuses on technology tutorials designed for students working on computer science projects. Topics include AI tools, web development, and data analysis.

Videos demonstrate how to build small applications step by step. The creator explains both theory and practical implementation so viewers can follow along easily.

Impact: Students often use these tutorials to complete academic assignments and learn modern development tools.